

SGCIB closes the year with awards

Commodity Business Awards

SGCIB was awarded in London with the first Commodity Business Awards, in the category Commodity Finance & Structured Products. The award reinforces the excellent job done by SGCIB for the agribusiness sector.

The award is delivered by the respected Commodities Now Magazine publication and has as a goal to recognize and award the best practices of the 20 commodities disciplines, in the physical market as well as in the financial one, as management of risk, trading, structuration, finances, research, logistics, law and specific technology.

GTR Leaders in Trade Awards

For the third consecutive year, SGCIB was awarded with the GTR Leaders in Trade Awards, in the category Best Global Export Finance Bank. The award is delivered by the GTR Trade Financial News, important publication from the financial segment.

In the last two months, 5 thousand readers voted on the company's website to choose the main institutions in trade finance. The article including the winners will be published in the January/February edition of GTR.
